

Steven Reeder

ACC, CPC, ELI-MP

Certified Coach, Speaker, Trainer

Steven@StevenReeder.com

www.StevenReeder.com

262-705-1283

MAPPING PERSONAL CHANGE A Path Forward

Steven Reeder has created a most significant way to bring closure to elements of my past and moved me into who am I today. His highly tuned intuition, clear communication style, preparedness, and example-driven message is so comforting and stimulating at the same time. With Steven, I found answers to so many questions, something that eleven years of therapy had never accomplished.

Janel Burt
Indianapolis, Indiana

When I met Steven Reeder, I felt like I was scattered to the four winds at all times. My life had no focus and it felt like everything was unraveling in every corner of my life. Steven was very astute, helping me understand where I wasted vital energy each day on things that haven't mattered in years. Steven gave me tools that greatly improved my outlook on the world around me. I now have a clear direction for my everyday life and I no longer throw my energy away on things I cannot change or that should remain in my past.

Bob Latham
Grass Valley, California

Steven creates a stable, solid space for learning and growth, so that when you leave you feel armed with useful information and a strategy of how to apply the concepts that he talks about. He makes complex concepts simple and tangible for easy application in real life. He makes the topics interesting and enlivening, and really shows how to strategize difficult and challenging issues, leaving the audience feeling energized and motivated.

Barb Heenan
Chicago, Illinois

Steven is a wonderful, masterful coach. He is equal parts challenging, friendly, supportive, kind-hearted, and expectant of excellence. His tone, care, professionalism are all on display and shaped and informed my own. He earned my trust and my admiration. Hire him, he is amazing.

Karen Delinski
Lafayette, Indiana.

Has your life been disrupted? Do you ever feel like you're being swept away by life's dramas? Are you worried that, if you don't fight change, your life will devolve into chaos? What can you do about it?

Life often provides transitions that we didn't ask for. Thankfully, the path to navigating personal change has been ingrained in us from a young age; if only we recognized it. Join Certified Professional Coach Steven Reeder who, through a combination of wisdom teachings and storytelling, explains how the process of personal change plays out in your own life. In seeing your life through one of our culture's most famous and fun stories, you'll learn to apply its lessons for instant impact.

Attendees leave this workshop knowing:

- Three rules of transformation that change your life
- How to read four internal compasses
- How to walk towards your goals with absolute confidence and courage.

Program length: Customizable 1 hour – 4 hours

Steven Reeder is a Certified Professional Coach, Certified Grief Recovery Specialist, and Energy Leadership Master Practitioner. He has partnered with such organizations as AbbVie, American Society for Quality, Age Forward, Bodhi Road, Namagay, and Metropolitan Community Church to create instant impact on grief, work/life balance, self-leadership, and major life changes. He is also an Assistant Trainer and Success Coach for the Institute for Professional Excellence in Coaching (iPEC); teaching and supporting students to raise the consciousness of the world one person at a time.